

The Missing Cross to Purity

Messages From the Lord

(Beginning with the below sentence, "This is the Word of the Lord to you all," to the bottom of this box, all words are from the Word of the Lord within, exactly as they were heard with no editing, no modification, and no additions other than punctuation and position of placement.)

"This is the Word of the Lord to you all. Welcome to my site. This is not for those who don't believe; we are confronting those who believe. People can't come in fear; they have to come in love. We are clarifying man's salvation and access to God for those of the faith who would put on more precious clothes. You who have been in your fleshly garments need some changes made. There is a life which must be rejected. Like the Apostles, you too must be cleansed. To fulfill God's will, we must be clean. Only those who want to be clean can hear. To hear Him, man must decide how he wants to live: a slave to his passions and anger, or free. I am giving away the best of everything. Great comfort be to those who read all these words.

The cross is offered to all. There are many that deny the cross and all that is necessary. He who is not on the cross is not worthy of me. The purpose of this website is to teach you how to carry your cross.

Are you ready to see your sins? As many as are at their savior's feet, there are six things I will put in order in front of your eyes:

1. how evil proceeds out of the heart,
2. and goes forth out of the mouth.
3. how your heart longs for evil.
4. how your feet are swift to run to evil.
5. how your heart builds a strong tower as a bulwark of defense.
6. how your heart is a mirror of the world.

As many as I love, I chastise. I am only reached by those with a penitent heart. I seek sincere men. I would have all men seek me. I would have all men saved. I would have all men like me. Christ would do for the world what He did for the disciples.

You who hunger and thirst are God's chosen people. The early Quaker writings are a rich heritage, which all must strive to fully understand; they believed in the promises set before them. They who deny what I stand for are lost as to the future; let my writings guide your future. The two most important books on this site are: The Journal of George Fox and No Cross No Crown by William Penn. Stop following men. The Christians feared the early Quakers, just as the Jews feared Jesus; and some of you cried over the persecutions of the Quakers — that tells a story. No Cross, No Crown, one of the greatest books written in all time; who spoke those bold resolute sentences? We owe the early Quakers a lot. Beware of false Quakers; they are already leading many aside; they don't understand how to devote themselves to God. Who have become Quakers are an anathema; they blot my efforts; they cumber the ground; they are imitators of Christ's gospel; there are no Quakers. The men and women on this site have been separated; the Lord has separated them.

Salvation is only approached by those with a penitent heart. Let every one turn away from his own sins; turn from sin as best you can. Jesus did not die so you can continue to sin. I would just as soon have avoided that horrible death. I did it to show you the extent of obedience required for your own salvation. If you are still sinning, you belong to sin and not to Me. You cannot pass the moral commandments and be a Christian. You must have a devotion to the law that is on every man's heart; you must listen, and you must obey. Obedience leads to salvation. He told us it was not enough to believe in God, we must believe what He says to be true. It is not enough to believe in Jesus; we must believe what He says and then act on it. He told us it was not enough to seek God, we must seek with all our heart and soul. You will find Him if you seek Him with all your heart. The Lord is good to the soul that seeks him. Oh seek the Lord where there is honor and peace. Rather than journey in outward ways, turn inward; look not out. Above all, zealous seeking of the Lord is required. Do only what is necessary; make the most use of your time. Restraint of sin is not enough; salvation is being freed from even the desire of your sins. Only a heart that is purged of sin is acceptable to God. With loving obedience to the commands of God, you too will be purged. Draw near to God; make haste; do not be stymied. When you draw near to God, we draw near to you; I speak, John 6:35. Better comes to those with a cool head. Disciples do His commands. I am the bread of life; he who comes to me will never hunger. Many have seen the error of their way. Many have come; many will come; many will be raised. Christ is actually resurrected in every person that comes to Him and obeys Him repetitively. With persistent and faithful obedience, you too will be raised. It is your responsibility to learn. He who would be my disciple must believe all the words that I speak to him. These are not paths of glory traveled lightly. So know what it means 'to love God.'

Pursue righteousness and holiness, without which no one will see the Lord. Your righteousness must exceed that of the Pharisees. You who believe the Son shall be made righteous. He who is righteous is done with sin. Be perfect, as your heavenly Father is perfect. Make no provision for the flesh. A man without sin has the power and life given to him. The pure is innocent of all defilement. I give favors to he who is pure. See myself — thus no sin has a place in me. Sin in believers is intolerable. The perfection of man frees from death; repent of your evil. Walk not after the flesh; walk not in lusts. Sin is until salvation, leaving holiness and purity. The end is sympathetic judgment and release from sin. The release from sin frees from death. When you have been freed from sin, your reward is holiness. I who called you am holy; be ye holy. The Spirit makes a man holy. The end of sympathetic judgment is holiness. Either make the tree good, or make the tree bad. A tree that is holy is a good one. We seek a lasting perfection of holiness. Beware of what is in the body. Blessed are those who hear Me and obey. Expose yourself to hear His commands. Obey the word; obey the light of Christ. Obey every little thing I tell you. He who obeys my teachings, will experience several results: sanctification and cleansing; perfection and the fruit of the spirit; the love of God; to become a son of God, led by the Spirit of God; to be made free of sin.

Blessed are those who work towards the elimination of sin. Let no man entice you with vain words. Fear God and give Him the glory. To fear is to depart from evil. We must be brought under the control of God by repentance. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, who stand forth without repentance! Great will be the tribulation of those who fail to repent. Do not be confused; do not be misled; you must break a suspected action. There is a war you must win: sin must be overcome; the fleshly lusts war against your soul. Consequence-free sin does not exist; the consequences are truly staggering. I drop among those who find themselves within the law warring within. Whatever you overcome and go back into is far harder the second time to overcome. Sin no more. Affliction and distress on every soul that does evil. Do not be misled; anger must be eliminated to enter the kingdom.

The kingdom, the grand prize. Seek first the kingdom, and all else will be provided — provided you stay on course. Do not be misled; you must enter the kingdom while on earth. You can live in heaven and still walk the earth. He who does not seek the kingdom will be the poor. Oh seek the Lord you mighty, for the kingdom is sweet, and pure, and holy. Oh seek the Lord you mighty, while there is still time. Those who are immoral have no inheritance in God's kingdom. The kingdom will be found by those who search for it and who are led by me. The kingdom is awaited with patience. There are many who claim to be in the kingdom. Those who imagined they were in the kingdom will be cast aside; the path is strewn with bodies of the cast-aside. Let us diligently labor to enter the kingdom. Health and happiness are in the kingdom. Holy is the kingdom, the surrounding radiance of it; there is a wondrous beauty to be had. The way is clear — listen and obey.

Strive to enter through the narrow gate; few will find it. Men have stopped trying. They have plunged themselves into iniquity. Fat men of increase would have a god fat of increase, so they can use God to become holy or to become fat. Make seeking the Lord the highest priority in your life. Seek his face. Seek his face in ever increasing glory. He who seeks me earnestly and diligently will find me. Heed and obey. Life's sustaining action is available to those who heed. Six attestations prove the reign's existence. The second coming is a personal experience. The second coming is in the hearts of purified believers. The King is where He is king. If all that profess me, would possess me; actions belie all professions. You must produce fruit, much fruit. True followers bring forth fruit. A true disciple wins my heart. See that you dwell in him, and he dwells in you. Dwell in the immortal seed. He that views them from afar off — he that is quiet — that is his place.

Awake to righteousness and sin not. I was sent to bare righteousness. I stand for righteousness. Do not be misled over righteousness; all sin is unrighteousness. There is a righteousness imputed only after death. We, through the Spirit, wait for the hope of righteousness. Only the faith-that-frees imparts righteousness. There is no righteousness apart from God. Wisdom is no surprise to the righteous. He who is wise is through with sin. Only he who does the works of my Father can enter heaven; His works confirm who is. Only His works praise Him. Righteousness need be created. The Spirit makes alive unto righteousness. Aim at and pursue righteousness, without which no one will see the Lord. He who does righteousness is through with sin. Serve the Lord in pureness and newness of life.

Humble is our god. God is the humble servant of all; he teaches. Everyone needs a Lord, that to teach him. Behold, I stand at the door and knock. Christ speaks. Draw your arms around Him — take heed you incarnate. Heed my reproofs. You who have despised my reproofs will be ashamed; respect the order of the faith. If you ignore Him, He ignores you. Every man should retire to his own house until the foundations of the world are destroyed; withdraw from the world long enough to see the inconsideration and hate within it. Paul went to the desert for three and one half years, until springtime. In order to succeed, there must be a transformation from one state to another. You start by lowering your actions and words. Blessed be those who do not wander about. Everyone must find out what to do first; then He will teach you. He can see which misapprehensions you are suffering from and address that. He shows the contrariness of deceit. I am He who promises the sure mercies of David. God gives grace to the humble. Professed weaknesses are the humility of the soul. Strive to be low; avoid mastery. Low, low, low. He who does well is in humility. The sons of the fathers went to sleep. Many fell and erred from the true faith. I am against your fathers, being in the presumption.

The gospel is a mystery to the natural man; he cannot conceive it. The gospel is not a book to be read; it is to be revealed in your heart. The everlasting gospel comes to those who are not stained. A heart that is pure shall receive the glorious gospel freely. The gospel is pretty radical; it is mind boggling — unity with Christ; this I offered free of charge to anyone.

Beware of false prophets. There are millions of blind guide preachers. How can the ministers claim to be mine, when inside they are full of deceit and hypocrisy? They do everything for show. The gregarious make a living teaching the scriptures. Those who preach against perfection have a lack of earnest faith. False prophets appeal to unstable souls. I am against the shepherds, who have prophesied a false salvation. They have taken the Bible and made it an unholy thing used to justify their immersion in sin. Much of the Bible has been trivialized. They gutted what Jesus had to say; Jesus is ad tunes. They forget about me and teach errors. They teach the commandments of men; in vain do they worship me. They throw the word 'righteousness' around without any understanding of what it means. There is no hope; there is no guidance, other than 'study the scriptures.' Woe be to them, for they have coupled an external form between the love of God to man. Ten words from Him are better than ten copied letters. They cannot understand what the Spirit is doing. Their preaching only conveys the pride of Samaria. Outside the faith, they are teaching an equilibrium between good and evil. Those who follow the advice of these unpurified leaders, their life is like a bubble. I refuse to answer them. We deliberately ignore those of great repute. The leader of their army is Lucifer. They want to be sons; they recognize the scripture, 'he that is born of God has no sin,' but they blithely go on. They are foolish children. These people are far from me, living in sin and teaching others the inevitability of sin until death. The licensor and Spirit of Grace cannot stand together. God brings the curse on those sleight of hand. The false prophets have polluted the earth; they must be shamed. I further decry those who make a living preaching the scriptures.

Your thoughts are not my thoughts. At best your thoughts are a vain hiss. It is many thoughts that make the mortal man. Those who follow their own brain will weep and mourn; there will be great pain. The mind is a terrible thing. The mind is not subject to the law, nor can it be. We labor with a cursed mind for the carnal mind is neither subject to the law of God, nor can it be; that which is in the enmity must die. All thoughts must be rejected. I would have all calls to me stopped. There is a certain quiet and stillness. There is a blessing to make the cessation of the mind permanent. Let us be patient. We must grow in silence. You must go on waiting, watching, and listening; then our hearts will be quiet by grace. Keep seeking peace. Great will be your peace if you continue faithfully. You will receive a new heart and mind. Grow up into the mind of Christ, from which all good thoughts proceed. To know is not to think. Regardless of how good it feels, don't look back. To make decisions is to live in your carnal mind. We do not sing from our carnal minds; there will be a group of purified believers singing of the blessing. He gives faith to those who heed and obey him. Hear my wonderful words. I truly speak of love and how you are barbarous when taken under. Oh hear my words you mighty. Pursue sweet words of life. Live and learn. Listen to my voice so that you will hear all words. Hear and live; the Spirit gives life with every word heard. Live and be free.

What is necessary for salvation? — obedience to commands heard. Listen to my voice, and I will be your shepherd. Hear the word of the Lord from within. Blessed are they who hear the word of God and obey. Salvation comes to those who heed and obey. Salvation comes to those who wait. Wait, expose yourself to His commands, and hear. Be slow to speak, quick to listen. Getting quiet is preparation. Think on His name. Ears must hear. You will hear him if you go with no preset agenda. The more you hear, the more you want to hear. Hear my voice's wonderful, sweet words. Faith within purifies. What's going to happen, you might hear. Believe you are hearing the Son of God. When you sit and wait, hope for purity, hope for change. Come to me with the hope of speaking and acting righteously. I will show you the secret sins of your heart. Those whom I love, I chasten and rebuke. The Lord is gentle and kind to those whom He corrects, and even more than usual to those in suffering circumstances; for what cause have I against the elect? He is nothing but love and kindness. The words I speak to you impart life; you only hear what has been imparted. It is the Spirit who gives life, nothing else. My life comes in small increments. Hope releases the power of God to change you. There is no hope for anyone outside the power of God. You can lose your hope by not obeying what you know must be done. We are saved by hope. We live by the restoration of hope. We hold the promise to be true. Have confidence in the everlasting hope. Keep your hope alive. Prize your time; use it wisely. Everyone, make it your ambition to lead a quiet and peaceful life. Hear you incarnate.

Those who sit at the feet of Christ to hear his word — their ground is to wait. Everyone must submit to waiting on God, waiting in humility. Waiting on God is essential. We wait for the inward experience. Patiently we wait for God's instructions. To hear and obey is hard. People panic over the Lord not being apparent in working in them. When waiting, even if you do not hear for some time, it will be to your benefit; know that He is at work deep inside of you. To sit in humble silence, waiting on the Lord, is to bear the cross — instead of thinking how you might please others.

Do not deny the cross, which is the only way for all people. He who picks up his cross and follows me shall have life. Waiting on God is essential. Whoever cannot stand to bear his cross will not fare well. The work of the cross is to sit in the light and look at your will. In the course of your day, sit, sit, sit. In this process of carrying your cross, your sin gradually disappears, within and without, to your satisfaction. The wants disappear as the fleshly man decreases. The Holy Spirit is in the hand of true-broken flesh. Each word heard draws us closer to being protected. Little by little the Lord's will, will be progressed. Forgetting what lies behind, we draw nearer. There is only one way to get perfect, and it has been refused. When I tell them they need to clean the inside of the cup, they sit and wonder. When I tell them about the cross, they have no answer; they seem to have no desire. When you take up the cross, there is a record created. Those on the cross are pleasing to me. He who is not on the cross is repulsive to me. Those who have been crucified are through with sin as a motivator, and this must be felt from the inside. I only know those who have been crucified. As wonderful is the crucifixion of self, you are to continue in the steps of faith until you hear or see the end. We know total destruction of sin when finished; stay on the course. We await the fulfilling.

Hear me, my children. My words are in a place within you. Abide in my word. He has come in every word. I have come to teach all things. I have come to lead into all truth. My words are truth. Let the word of Christ richly dwell in you. Take heed to my words. Listen and obey. If you give heed to my words, I will dwell in you and walk in you. Attend to the words of my mouth. I have come that you might have life, the superior life of God. Faith within justifies, not an outward faith. Your strength is to wait. Blessed are those who hear my words. Every word heard brings you closer to Him; every word heard is your faith. Let not a word die in you. Wait, watch, listen. Come to the life. Come to the source. Come to me, and I will speak to your souls. Stay with me, and I will show you the secrets of life. Wake, give rise to power. Wait for, hope for, the Lord. Let Your mercy be in proportion to our waiting and hoping on You. You must wait on the Lord to receive salvation. If we go to him, and we wait on him, he comes. Everything you read clutters the mind; (in no way do I diminish those who spend time reading the web site). We need to get quiet and ready to listen. A man must exercise his choice to be still. In humble silence we sit and wait. Patiently we wait in humble silence. Patiently and assiduously we wait. As we wait, we hope. We go to him, and he rains help on us; well does this exercise of God purify those who do. Listen, heed, and obey — the word is near thee.

My word is in your heart and mouth. There is only one thing needful. The Lord is to be listened to and followed. He who seeks not my voice gropes in the dark. Unless the Lord guides you, you have no chance. The hand of the Lord is on those he guides. Take unto you my yoke. If those who hear will obey, their progress will be swift. I shall open up the doors of life to him that proceeds. You are my disciple if you do what I say. When you have heard the dead words in the Bible and recall them, heed what is said; always obedient to His commands. Blessed are they who heed the word of God and obey. Listen to and obey my voice, and I will be your God. Today, if you hear his voice, do not harden your hearts. He speaks to each of us mind-to-mind with words tailored to our exact understanding — my word. Listen well to my words; attend to them. Think on the name of Jesus while seeking after the Lord. The words you hear are not to be put away in a case; they are to be heeded, which results in life-changing actions. Salvation comes to those who obey Him; therefore keep and obey the commands you hear from Him. Those who do not hearken diligently to my command will not hear my voice. Obey the truth; do this and you shall live. Loving God is obeying Him; and if you don't seek to hear Him, you will miss the opportunity. If you love me, you will obey me. He who does not love me does not obey my commands. Those who continue in obedience love Christ. Who loves me will walk on hinds' feet in high places.

Keep listening and obeying, and you will do well. Once again, my word is in your heart and mouth, which is there to obey.

Nobody became perfect by trying to be perfect. If you would be perfect, follow me. Everybody who believes the son shall be made perfect. The Lord's arm has been withheld; witness therefore man made perfect. When you are perfect, it will be abundantly clear. A perfect man hears what to do — a time of great joy. It takes several years to reach a stage of perfection. What is the evidence of your belief? — operational faith. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Faith is to hear the Word of God and obey. And to those who obey, he will appear like a magnificent star in your heart. One sees the light of Christ. We await the presence. Light comes from faith in the voice. Those who wait on the Lord will see the Light of Christ. He who perseveres will see the light of day. First the light arises, then the kingdom. The arising of the light will be unmistakable; it is an ego-shattering experience. I have come as a light to the world so that whoever believes in me shall not abide in darkness. I am the light of the world; he who follows me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life. I am the light of the world; whoever continues to feed on me shall have the light of life. Walking in the light is to be guided through life by God; walking in darkness is making your own decisions as to what to do and say. A man's heart is seen with the light. All sin is darkness. There is no darkness but what will be discovered. Blessed is he who holds that the light is true. Light does not come from outside the heart. There is a presence within you, which is the same as God; the light in you is the same from which it originated. The light was given plentifully to every man. Heed the light, which is to assent to truth. The light shows us our image, however fanciful we have become; neither is it pleasant what the light exposes. My true friends take no thought of confession; don't take the time when you get a clear view. The Lord reproves those who are His. When the light shows you something to do, every act of disobedience has to be carried away by an act of obedience. Awaken the power within you. Power comes to those who waited, heard, and obeyed. Power comes to those who least expect it. Those who listen in the light, I would have walk in my life. Heed the light that you may be children of the light. Walk in fellowship in the light. Do not let the light go down on your anger.

God's Spirit powers the earth. The gift of God is himself — a measure of his Spirit; to each man a measure. The Spirit is given to each man according to the willingness of his heart. If the Spirit is given to you in sufficient measure, then your heart will see and feel; well do those exercise the power. Listen to and obey my voice; listen to my sweet words of wisdom. Listen to and obey my voice, and you will be my people. If you pay attention and obey, it results in union with God. He joins with our cleansed nature. Holy is our Lord God, holy is his name. We must become like Him to merge with Him. Once you are in union, it is permanent. We should always approach God with the thought of being with him forever. There is no condemnation for those in Christ. He who is in my name is part of my body. He wishes to make you like Him. We need to get clean before we can truly worship. All must worship in spirit and truth; I totally deny all other forms of worship; to be in Jesus is to be in truth. There are very few people who, when they see what God is, would turn down union with him. Nobody else has the answers, nobody but He. Truly, I say to you, all the truth is magnificent; you will marvel when you see it. Even Job marveled at what he saw. You will hear the truth at final judgment. You will know the truth when you see Jesus bring your salvation. Feel the power of an endless life; eat from the tree of life. Strengthen the inner man. Power within directs. Without our promises the soul is grieved; with them the soul settles down to a vigilant tribute to the Lord. Make it your aim to please God.

The godly wait for my instructions for many things shall I come want done. Hope to do good according to His infinite capacity. We must first be shown our sin within, which is enmity to God. Wait for Him to charter your feet. I was surely sent; as I was sent, so too must you be. Those of you who are preaching without authorization: you will be found out, you will be exposed. To serve without hearing is putting your life in danger. Listen to my advice; He will not spare the flock. You must cease from using my name. Don't invoke words about God. A word spoken from the Spirit requires you to hear what the Spirit says to you; speak only what you are told to speak. Put together my mouth and my mind to deliver the word of God to the world; the word is given to proven receptacles. No one is to be giving speeches until words come from Him. Let all those who speak, speak with power and authority. When you speak words from yourself, it doesn't matter what you say; you say them with the wrong spirit, and they don't reach the heart of your listeners. All and only words from Him are to be spoken; the purpose is to prevent anyone from going out without authority, which you can see creates problems. Don't even talk about God or Jesus. Regarding those who run ahead, they are abandoned with cruel, hard knocks. Don't try to lead anyone. Those who take directed action will save theirs and others' lives. Pray only as you are told. If told what to pray for, they can be extremely effective; to pray as heard — righteous expectation. Master following. Follow precisely; do not deviate. Everyone hear what the Spirit says; this you do. You must obey every law the Spirit establishes. You do as God has directed and only that; we do as He tells us. With freedom comes responsibility. The works of my father must be done by all if you are to inherit eternal life. Watch and keep low. You may feel a severe, irritating pressure. Once you have expressed sorrow over the past, it is redundant to bring it up again. Forget the feelings of having past failed. Through guilt you can become entangled again. Forgetting what lies behind, we press onward.

Practice random acts of kindness. A Warning from the Lord: 'You must distribute liberally.' Give from your excess. Do not be content with stocks. Share the riches with others as you liberally distribute to the poor. Share with those who have an excess burden. Give to whomever asks of you. Take heed not to do your deeds so as to be seen by men. Do the same for all men. Do not be among those who settle for gold. Be on your guard; life does not consist of an abundance of possessions. I am the Alpha and Omega; he that follows me shall not want.

When you cast my warnings behind you, this erases the fear we must have. Pay not attention, heed not, and I will come upon you as a thief in the night. He was in them, but they obeyed not his voice. I have given counsel, but they have ignored it. Those who refused to obey were shunted aside. He shall shut the door on those not holy. There will be no solace. There will be weeping and gnashing outside those who obeyed the Lord. Those who sin willfully have intent to purpose — and there are those who sin that are frightened to death at what they have done.

Righteousness, all must have. Make yourselves slaves to righteousness, whose reward is holiness. Be submissive. You are the slave of whom you choose; obey, or not interested? You are the children of whom you obey. You are the slaves of whom you obey. Every man must experience being a slave to God. We aim to please God. You must submit continually. He must do all things. When you are purged from dead works, you are freed from serving iniquity to serving God. Happy are they who serve God in His kingdom. To be a servant requires your mind to be made new. Serve the Lord with receipt of holiness. We must serve the Lord in pureness and holiness. For servitude, every man must experience heart-felt desire; he must become totally different. We are followers. Want to be different. Learn how I feel about things. Where you are different, want to be changed to be like me. Everyone must be vanilla — the same. Live to serve. Make it your ambition to be a slave to righteousness.

I dwell in those with a broken and contrite heart. You shall suffer persecution when you lead a godly life. He proposes trust to those of us who know the way. In the time of the enemy, the Lord is still with you. Any of you whose sting to bear has been hard, use these facts: all have suffered before you; sin is excoriated; God will remove the burden in time; and the same is experienced by every cleanliness-desired heart in the nations. Therefore, for the several cases, we wish you well when you suffer. Take no offence; do not be offended at anything. In the time of the enemy, there are difficult things to endure; despise not the cross. As Christ suffered in the flesh, so you should follow in his footsteps. All God's sons are tested. Through patient endurance do you possess your souls. Our aim is to bear all; you must learn to bear the pain. Either pain in this life or the next. Don't ever complain. Stand fast in the faith. Never give up, no matter how good it feels looking back. Take no thought of yourself. It is blind to give up, knowing the will of God. Don't even think about giving up. Away from me, you don't want to run. Let patience have its perfect work. Remain faithful to the promises. Little children, do not worry. Be firm, not petulant. Doubt not, faint not, forget not. Accept everything; take offence at nothing; just sit and wait. Be like the early Church, who for inexpressible joy endured to the end. We deliver.

There was an uproar when Jesus first appeared on the earth. They called me a heretic; they accused me of blasphemy; they hated me; they cursed me; they said, 'here comes the trier of our law.' Those who hate Him also hate His record. We will be abrasive. Marvel not if the world hates you; you will be hated.

Just like Judaism was taken over by the enemy, so has Christianity, which is corrupt through and through. There is no church in the world that Christ set up specifically; none of the churches reflect true Christianity. Like Daniel, you are captive of the Chaldeans. Your place of worship is filled with unclean birds. Touch no unclean thing. Babylon is great and mighty. Babylon the great: aggrandizement of self. Woe to those who try to bring good from evil. Oh Christendom, be not at ease in Babylon! In your worship service look around you; do you see the Holy Spirit? Proper worship is for two or three to speak as moved by the Spirit. Christians today are not Christians. No one on earth is righteous, not one. The whole world is cut off from God. All men are selfish. Everyone stumbles. You can engage in sinful behavior and not even know it. Often Christians don't even realize they are living in sin. No one in Christendom is warning the people about sin. They must isolate their vain-glorious spirits. By their evident display of sin, Christians cause my name to be blasphemed among the people. Those who have no fear of God are an embarrassment. They have passed their usefulness. They taught themselves in will-worship. I am going to clean my house. I have had to deal with very wicked people who have cast the law behind their backs; in my anger I have left them no peace. A lightness of mind causes a man to discard the law. The leaders of Christianity are dogs — blind, dumb, ignorant dogs; professing to know everything, they know nothing; professing to know everything, they live their lives as fools. Despite his record, the world regards Augustine as the foremost expert on religion. The Catholic church is medieval; it is a beast. Those of the Aegean Sea, their counsels are thick and dark; their hearts are callous and cold. The Protestant sects have invented nothing new except instant salvation by grace; it is twisted, pernicious lies, a fatal flaw that turns aside the just. The entirety of Buddhism is full of lies and hypocrisy; the statues of Buddha show that he had not learned to control the basest human condition. The whole world has gone in the way of error: everyone dies in sin; the world remains in sin. Do you agree with any who in their arrogance have stated that God excuses evil in believers? It's not fair, but they don't care. God is just beyond measure. Faith without works is dead. Little children, let us love not only in word but in deeds. If all would possess me, removing chance. People cannot hear, who are taught by enemies. Sacraments: conflagration — to continue to do what you are not supposed to do, and afterwards be overcome with grief as to what you have done. Church: forever sorry for what you have done, while at the same time turning right around and doing it again; it feeds itself. Great is the destruction of those places of worship. The Christian medium itself is conformable to death. Truly these people call on me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Those with the mark of the beast will be given thirty days to repent. Come out of her, my love. Come out of her my people; you are defiled.

Your heart cannot reach those who wonder after the beast. O Christian, do not speak to the Jew unless instructed. The holy people of God should avoid contentions and protracted wrangling over the bitter truth; avoid public opposition. I would have my people not be offended by a lack of sincerity or truth. Avoid the presentation of evil. Avoid foolish controversies; fend off pointless questions. Everyone who desires rest from the bitter and the sour, you must use soap, my soap, the Holy Spirit.

There is a promise of more worlds to come. Those who wait on the Lord shall inherit a new earth. The new earth — a new beginning. Jesus is a mighty name to be declared in all the worlds to come. Guard and protect His name. From this one earth shall many earths come forth. The earth exists for the saints. Follow me and I will lead you to a new land; you will explore a new land, a place where no one else has ever been. Let's go to a new land where children are a score. The new earth will be full of wisdom. The Lord's wisdom will rain the children. The world will be regenerated as it was in the beginning, world without end. There will be a mist released, which shall cover the whole earth. Everything will be provided. The Lord will teach us the early way of life. No longer will children have to suffer the influences of their parents. The sole objective of the new world is to not harm children. I want the innocence of children to continue. Children will be raised in a pristine, clean environment; righteousness will flourish. Witness alive in the new creation.

Gather the prophets: Isaiah, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, and all. You can find out what is pleasing to God. Proverbs: we must all believe the hidden comforts in those proven words. The Bible has been made hollow through the years and therefore blamed. Ratify James. And then they read again, and saw the law applied to them too. The law is in every man's heart, and it must be obeyed; the supreme law — never been cancelled. Until you witness receiving faith from Christ, you are under the law. Until you witness the law fulfilled in you, you are under the law. Woe be to you if you don't listen and fulfill the law. The law is yours to have and keep until death does part. Ephesians 5:5-6—this is the void of the earth, made perfectly clear. Little children, thy garments are spotted. Little children, take heed unto me. I am the source of all truth. Unless you hear and see, there will be no progress. God helps not the proud; he assists the humble. He who has my words and keeps them, serves the Son. Walk in the steps of faith. Feel Christ, the Way. My true friends proceed from faith; it orders them. It's all about building faith. The soul shall live that chooses me; the greatest reward for the finest of the few who will persist to the end. I will build you up so that you have no worries and no cares. Sit with me, and I will make you clean. Those young in the faith will succeed; there is still time. One does not become a son talking about it. Grace destroys sin. The changes that the Spirit makes are long lasting. We seek a permanent relationship. In the Old Testament it was not a permanent relationship; they often lost it. Temporary perfection is replaced by permanent perfection.

Do not love the things of this world. You must learn to hate everything you worship. Have nothing to do with the evils of society. Everyone should put away what they are doing for the sake of righteousness. You do not have to go to Him to end your social life. Keep to yourselves. The use of your phone is proportional to your spiritual poverty. There is no life apart from God. The Spirit of Grace both charges and removes, just like Jesus said 'repent,' and also healed. By mercy and grace, evil is taken out of your heart. The Lord can work around anything in a man. I stand with those freed from sin. You are a son when Jesus appears in your heart to guide you. Those who belong to Christ are through with sin. Those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh. Talking about sin does no good. People don't realize the evil that comes from their mouth. All talk is an abomination. God, save us from the sayings of our mouth. Conversation is to be restricted so much that you are ostracized. Let your yes be yes and your no be no. When spoken to, don't be rude; you can answer, but let your words be as few as possible. Keep to yourselves. Avoid foolish conversations. Avoid foolish controversies. Pay attention to what you are saying; make it brief. Let your words be few, seasoned with grace. In the course of your day, you might have only one or two words said as you pursue your goal. Speak only if it is really necessary. Facebook is gossip; be angry at gossip.

We offer a maturity. Blessed are those who are set free from the bonds of imprisonment. People have not heard of the grace of God, which separates from sin; so all that seek their hope through the gospel, the power of God takes hold of a man and makes him holy. Your soul is purified by obeying the truth; thus I come to rule in whose heart is thoroughly penitent, and you are redeemed from under the power of Satan. Those not purified in this life must suffer through the next.

Salvation is not expectation. Salvation is to be delivered from sin. Your past evidences are a failure. Witness salvation; your life isn't worth a plug nickel, unless you are shown salvation. Make every effort, for the days are few. Saved by grace; but what about the rest of that chapter? You have not experienced grace until you have been raised with Him. Changing grace is alive in those who are confident. Grace brings salvation to those who have been expecting it and ordering themselves aright. However well meaning you are, you must read and see if your life measures up. I must warn you — you must make every effort to add to your faith and enter the rest. You must see the sabbath to enjoy it — not only that, but you must feel it; feel it go through your heart as yours to keep. Let no man deceive you; he who has entered into the rest has ceased from his own works. The three witnesses: these three clearly must be manifest; eyes have to germinate. Heaven appears to the spiritual eye. Ears must hear, eyes must see. Many eyes will be opened.

Little children, this is the seventh day of the kingdom; we are at the beginning of time. There has never been a time like now; all men will twist in the earth. Long have we tolerated evil in the world; it is no longer tolerable. The world is full of all manner of sin. Listen everyone! There is a time coming when everyone will hear the voice of the Lord; heed and obey. I want everyone to be the beneficiary of prescription, and none to feel left out. Those who imagined they were without sin will be told. There is a time coming when the innermost thoughts of all men will be revealed. The narrow way is to be understood by everyone in the whole world. Every man will know what it means to wait on God. Many ears shall hear. Everybody stops what they are doing, and waits on the Lord; I am sorry to say, but many will return to sin. I will warn people about the coming troubles, about which there is no comparison. Until one has seen and heard the troubles, they can't imagine them. I have provided several warnings. My time is very, very short. The Lord will give recompense to his enemies. Revelation foretells the future. The world in every man is destroyed by the Lord. Men have forgotten that food is the gift of God to man. I am going to make the necessities of life scarce. Who follows me will not go hungry. The secure will take advantage of the insecure. Sudden rain gets the best of everything, and then an interruption in the oil supply. The ungodly will panic; the Lord will deliver those who are his. I will put a dividing line in the countries. Those who have no light, I will destroy. There will be many deaths; I will not refrain from death. I will betray those who are happy in their sins. I will fill the whole earth with the dead. The bodies will be removed; the rest stay. All is being done for the sake of the children. I will give ample time before destruction of sin. If you are one of the elect, you need not fear; God is with you. You will have the protection of the heavens. Let your heart not be troubled. I will let you know the venue by which you will escape. I don't expect you to throw caution to the wind. I want everyone to save something beforehand. There will be violence in the land. In time of extreme difficulty, everyone turns to God. People need to be primed to accept God's message. I will unite the transgressors. Those slain for their testimony will be avenged when the persecutions have ceased; those slain are quickly compensated. Record corruption will cover the earth. Violence shall shake the land. All those who destroy will be imagined to be my authorities. Whoever does wickedly and unjustly will be punished. Those with vengeance the Lord will punish. To those of you who sit in complacency, doing nothing: the sword is for all of you that love the world and the deceivableness of lust; I will devour the earth. The children have lost the inheritance of God. Every single person suffers from lack of fidelity. They must pass through the earth wise.

Those who have no light, on these I will collapse. Those who have light, I will spare. Clearly there are some who will be greatly preferred. I am going to thin the earth; entire families will die; entire towns will perish. I love the little children too, but I want to see them bloom; you will see them break forth. How often I have wished to gather my people up, but they will not turn from their evil ways. There will be a crisis; widespread destruction in all nations. A purge must take place; deaths are necessary. The power that gave them life, gives them death. I will make men more precious than rubies. I will make obedience the fruit of righteousness. I will put my law into every man's heart. The Lord shall establish righteousness throughout the earth. Man shall not live by bread alone any longer. There will be peace between men. Only when God's hand has circled the earth, can he gag the lion. I will put my tongue on the face of the earth. When the people hear my name, they will tremble. It will be done. O seek the Lord you mighty, while you still have strength. Come to me, and I will guide the meek and lowly. Turn and be strengthened. Blessed are the meek; they have the right to speak.

I was looking for men who wanted to become something like me, but now they have stopped seeking a way. There is a life that has been rejected — holiness, the gift of God. There came a view that happiness and holiness are separable. It is our fear that has been rejected. For their survival, it is necessary to listen to the Spirit; but they are so busy praying, they cannot hear. When they pray, they know not what they pray to. I am concerned for the people have gone back into the Bible and thus minister to themselves. Studying the Bible is a work of the flesh. I work with the blind; but if you think you can see, and you are not with me in heaven, I will make you a laughingstock. Don't ever be a blind guide.

Everyone listen to what the Spirit says; this you follow. This is the journey out of Egypt; this is the journey to the kingdom, the gate crasher; and the barriers come down. Those who like Egypt are thwarted from coming. All this comes to pass according to his purpose by self-denial and yielding to his will. Everyone must work hard along the way, taking care not to do your works so as to be seen by men. You must be on the alert and ever watchful. We want everyone to be vigilant. Be watchful and heed. There must be a day by day watch in the journey. Be of strong will and good patience; be bold and resolute. Do not let yourself get discouraged. Be content in all circumstances. The Lord is the panacea. You do your best; we do the rest. In Christ is the promise of health and happiness. It is by grace your heart is gladdened. Those who are convinced and seek with their whole heart I will order aright. Dear, a ratify of James will do wonders. Do not perish; not from this life, but from the life of God. We desire no one's death. By mercy and truth evil is purged out of the heart. Thoroughly purge the old leaven. All dies when the Word is touched.

As you can see, the state of mankind is not good. The whole world is a sham. Everything in the world is false — the pleasures, the treasures, the pastimes. The whole world lies in wickedness; the wickedness knows no shame. Darkness mocks the earth; darkness covers the earth. I can't help the people of the world for their back is toward me; they have put me on ignore. The whole world lies in sin. The whole world is filled with people who live by their immoral imaginations. Woe be to the inhabitants of the earth, who stand not in the counsels of the Lord, but as they wish. All have sinned against me. People of the world are taught vanity. There is no fear of God or common sense in the world. Every man walks without me; every man walks without hesitation. Everyone walks after the imagination of their heart. No one walks by me. All men are profane. All men are evil. Pride is eminent. Corruption is over all, corruption is under all, corruption is everywhere. America's colleges and universities continue to express filth and lust on all sides. The world knows no restraint; their passions are their downfall. The wicked assert themselves. Your wickedness lies in shame. Every man was his own king. Then there were those who lived openly in sin with no shame.

Much is said in the marriage vows; if those promises were kept, the world would be a better place. Life's curse: a dark house. Religion has rejected the status of men. People like their anger and rage. Hate breeds violence. Violence has become pervasive. Football takes little boys and turns them into animals. Violence begets violence. Those who sought power found they could never get enough. Modern-day women are considered to be matriarchs. Wives are speaking of their husbands for whom their lips ought to be sealed. Children are taught fellowship with some other being rather than with God. People are valued only on their looks; all that glitters is not gold. Most people go through life never needing, never seeking a lasting solution; after death there is a sense of regret over their life. Everyone will be known by what they have said and done. People are very brazen; people must stand the price for their very brazen behavior. All men are without excuse. If I were silent, they would have an excuse; every man has heard the call to repent. God's wrath comes on those who are disobedient. Cities show how ignorance can be in a cluster. The cities reflect the spirit of the tower of Babel. The world resides in the shade. What is happening in the world is the result of the Lord being forgotten. No one wants to admit that the world's debt is unsustainable; the world's balances stand in subjection. The world cannot see, and they are literally stumbling. The world is like a man running to jump into a snake pit; the formula is here, it is ripe for destruction, and we wait for the results. When the Lord purposes to effect a change, it is effected in a major way. The whole world believes what is about to happen couldn't happen. Blessed is the man who stands alert at my gates. My intent is to shake the entire world into a knowledge of my being. Fundamental law must be established. If you ask, 'What must I do?' — stay at home and wait on God. Forgo the world.

All nations shall be gathered to Him. The sheep of His fold are in all nations. In all nations, from every corner, men will stand and make a joyful sound unto the Lord. I am going to free a mountain full of people. The Lord shall break His rock over the heads of people. We look forward to reintegration. The survival of the fittest will come. I will grant a remover; he is justice; the lion's share. I will order a reprover of that certain lifestyle, living a certain way; they can't be reached. I will give him words to speak. He will cleanse the earth; he will be my agent and authority, my cleansing agent. His hands will not touch. I will convey death.

The woman was snatched away and hidden in the wilderness again. The woman in the wilderness is beautiful. Little children listen to the woman in the wilderness. This time when she appears, she will come in great power. Modern Pentecost is fast approaching, when the arm is bared. His arm has been cloaked since the apostles. A resurgence of power; the purpose of power: the perfecting of the saints. It will be the mightiest church ever, with the greatest punishments too. It is God's judgment that apostles are to be sent into the world. There will be many sites in every language. The world awaits the promise. The works of many shall be praised. Many shall govern. He fathers not the fool but fathers the wise in His paradise. The house of the righteous is glorious. The Lord is a pleasant inheritance. Without obedience you have nothing; sorry, there are not wildcards in the camp. You are without excuse O man; your covenant with death will be removed. What do you great princes mean; have you heard him? This is a call, a genuine call: Revelation 22:7. There are two things I hate: pride and an excuse for failure. In all things be content. The hypocrite may talk of faith and do evil. Oh seek the kingdom you mighty. Don't let the naysayers deflect you.

Listen carefully to my commands. Whatever God commands, whether it be dying on the cross, we obey; however financially strait, however it affects our reputation, however ruinous. I choose whom to anoint; your response to my commands dictates my choice.

Withhold nothing from Him, and He will withhold nothing from you. My friends are in the kingdom, the covenanted. Those inside are warm and humble. Communion is possible. We stand in His presence; in the kingdom we stand before God and His holy angels; we behold His beauty. There is none so glorious as he. We stand before Him that we might glorify Him. We stand in the presence of God speaking forth His words as commanded. A time of great rejoicing: a time of being told what to do. The Father will reward those who persevere and stand before Him.

Most problems come from reading the Bible without correct understanding. The entire Bible is a parable. The Bible is so hard to understand, their minister can tell them anything, and they will believe it. There are those who profess to know truth, only having knowledge of the Bible. It is no value to me to know truths and not know the Lord. Do you know him or just pretend to know him? To know him is to have met him and listened to him. Seek the meeting. Don't think you are safe until you have been reprov'd and reprov'd. You cannot be beyond question; that cannot be answered. Make sure of your election. He will know the elect. To know you are born again is to see your salvation appear in your heart. Salvation occurs when you are one with Christ and God.

There are those who live in elegance and turn their backs on the poor. Now who would put away anger; who would put away filth; who among you stays the course? And what does he offer us? He offers himself. And what does he declare? I've warn'd them and given them the requirements and preach'd the exclusions; they should not expect anything else or conclusion. All having been said, I stand ready to rescue those being saved at the last minute. Prepare for the flight. Do not believe everything you see or hear. Beware of false rumors that would lead aside the elect.

God reveals Himself to His true servants. God reveals himself in fire. He comes in everlasting flames. Remember, what is known of God is revealed in a man; a word not from the heart is too easily consumed, is not to be dwelled on, nor does it catch the appetite. Listen to me my people; hear. Lay my words upon your hearts and minds. Attend to my words; guard my commands; let them form a sight around you. Keep on repenting from the evil He shows you in your heart. Continue with me; continue in obedience. Obedience leads to restoration of life. The lure of sin dulls. My words are spirit and they impart life. The words you keep rise up to purify you. The time will come and now is when the dead shall hear the Son of God and live. Except I dig a man out of his grave, he shall no wise see salvation. A son of God is chosen.

We trust in the living God, who is the savior of all men. All are reconcilable to some degree. All must come to a knowledge of God. In the end, all must see. Christ died so that all men of the earth shall arise. We are all precious in His sight. The righteousness of God will be revealed to all men. The hallmark of God is forgiving; God is forgiving. All will be forgiven in the end. All flesh shall see the salvation of God. Every tongue will witness Jesus Christ as Lord. He will rule every man. All the people shall be governed. I will change all men's hearts to become like me. My love overcomes everything; love conquers all. Everyone will lose their life. There are no failures in the next life, only people getting better. My prayer is: those who are lost will be found. I will cause the highest to the lowest to seek me. He will give root to those who seek him a third time. My mercy knows no bounds. Every man and woman must stop being their own judge and leave it to me to judge them inwardly over time.

Set your sights on the heavens where you are to sit down with Him and to where all are called, according to the riches of his mercy. Be the very best you can — for me. Reach for the top. Shoot for the stars; be all you can be, for me. We are all going to die anyway, so why not make the best possible of your death? Man must die. Life conveys death. We have the hope of a promising life. Maintain hope. You must remain on the alert, always hoping. Fight the good fight, which leads to victory. Where can he be found? You don't have to go to the heavens or go to the deeps, for he is in your heart, patiently waiting to teach you. My words are spirit and whole life. Sit with me, and I will make you whole. Remember the temple outside and the temple inside. The family of God dwells in their temples. Let's get on with building it, which ends with him showing it to you in you.

Women are widely discriminated against. In my Church there is but one, both male and female are one in Christ. You will see them minister in power and in my name. Paul spoke of unruly women, newly initiated. The hand is on the neck to guide them low and keep them low. I agree with you; low should be seen and not heard, neither is this offered to any individual who cannot control her tongue and self has not died.

I am the judge of all people. I judge only as I hear. I judge all things. We await the judgment of the word. I will render to every man according to his deeds. God lets man see his evil self. When you see the abomination of desolation, do not be afraid; stand your ground; I will come within five minutes to destroy him. We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, male and female. The Lord shall render to every man according to his works, good or bad. Judgment measures the buying and rendering of each. Every man's work must pass through the fire; every man's work is judged by fire. Everyone will be salted by fire. By fire does he make those truly seeking to be his body. I will devour those who do not follow, and snatch the righteous from the fire. Judgment begins with the house of God. All the help of the tested word cannot exceed that of judgment. Be not afraid; stand still, be calm; be still and know I am with you. God treads down and throws away all that is unholy; there is a dying. The righteous will barely be saved.

Blessed be the man who is tired of self. People have not heard that you can lose your life. Those who lose their life will find life. You must lose your life to save it; you must hate your life to lose your life. Few will be saved because of their love of life. The sacrifice of life has been given to the few who would lose their life to save it. The sacrifice of life is a twist of fate. The sacrifice of life is given to those who can afford it. Thou art the sacrifice. They lost their life by me taking their life. One actually dies to enter the camp. One dies on the cross. It is an honorable thing to die for the Lord. Those who die bring honor to their parents. One dies to see the Lord. To endure on the cross is dying. Death falls on man to end the world, including some whose eyes were never opened. There is a hate of life associated with praise at death. There is no burden of death among us. You are raised to a new life, not just an imitation; He is one with us and ever-present. Put on the new man. Be strong and hope for a stalwart victory.

Do not be yoked with unbelievers. Look not for the approval of men. Those who seek the honor of men will know no other. Peace, honor, and glory to those who persist in working good. You must stand apart from this fast paced world; you can't be in it. The release from captivity of sin was first mentioned in Isaiah. The natural man listens, he hears people talk, and he forms his opinions. The god of this world leads people to have their own opinions too; he blinds their eye as to what is good and what is evil; he examines their past to see how he may thwart their understanding; the difference between good and evil blurs. It pays people to resolve the massive difference between good and evil.

The Shulamites are favored by God, made perfect, made holy, and made lastingly holy. You must be holy as I am holy. If any man desires to come after me, let him deny himself and follow. He who follows me, I will not deny, but will open the book of life to him. Righteousness will spring forth. I will come again to the elect; I will be their crown to lead and guide them. Christ does not come into the world, but comes into his own and gathers his seed; there is an eating of bread and a taking off the chains. Many will see Him on that day. You will know Him by His coming. Everyone will see whom they have pierced. Be he who is called within. The men and women on this site have had their hearts opened. What must you do to inherit eternal life? — what everyone must do: keep the commandments, pick up your cross, and follow me. I am the resurrection and the life; he that comes to me shall not lack but have everlasting life. Anything evil is not of God. Hate all evil. Overcome evil with good. Beware of those who tend to get angry. It's not good to party; there will be no parties. Do violence to no man. Abhor violence. Do not swear; swear not at all. No smoking worldwide, worldwide. Tell the truth. Do not lie; never the status of lying to one another. I set at liberty those who tell the truth and do not lie. Do not sue. Don't vilify. Be on your guard at all times to be sure your words do not reflect the fruits of the flesh. Modesty: be modest in all things. Owe no one any debt but one of love. Never ask for money. Follow in His footsteps.

Christianity has no idea what I am or for what I stand. There is an incorrect image of him and the most high God; he serves the most high God; that process never stopped. The enemy is in all of Christendom. Everyone is expecting Jesus to be their excuse. They are a stubborn people; their hearts have waxed cold. They think to be saved by making a noise about being saved. They are a clueless, fruitless people. All are filthy dreamers. He that doesn't listen is damned already. Their damnation does not slumber, nor do they remain sober, nor do they remain open minded in this present world. They have missed the mark. They have ignored my commands to turn from sin. Often they block me, thinking I am an evil spirit. They would have no laws. For half of Christianity the blood will be disastrous. God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness. The new law became unrighteousness. The covenant of the Lord is a breakage of the people. How could they be mine if they journey in outward ways? Don't dress up in your best clothes to impress your friends, rather turn inward. Turn inward to discover the mysteries. Christians have lost the gift of life to govern themselves. These people no longer represent me; they have caused great indignation. They are unable to defeat sin because of scant belief; food is scant among them. They live in the physical, hoping to illustrate the spiritual.

The world thinks life consists of getting married. The world must learn it is necessary to seek God. To live is to seek God with all your heart, soul, and strength. God is not found going to services or reading about him. His pervasive power awakes in us. No man is promoted or excused that repeats sin. The spirit works in a man to make him clean and holy — to put him at ease, at rest, clean, and supreme. I came to conquer, not judge. Little children, share in my peace. The righteous will have peace, and the unbeliever will have great trouble. Aim for and pursue peace. We seek a lasting peace. Live in peace forever. Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts for every thought and deed. Witness the peace of the kingdom. Call on the Lord with a pure heart. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they shall see God. There are no laws when you are under complete control of the spirit; you walk in love in obedience as prompted — you don't walk in restricted flesh. Christ is freedom.

Faith is a series of revelations. He gives faith to those who heed and obey him. Great will be the reward for those whose faith is strong. He who believes has the witness in himself; he who believes overcomes the world. Men must be renewed into the image of God. There will be true love. The prevailing wind will prevail. God's mercy and kindness endure forever. Whoever does worthily will sit on my throne. Prepare the way of the Lord. Let all that are named of the Lord depart from iniquity. At times of avoidance we are clearly on the path. Let all turn from man's belief to be saved. You must forsake all that is evil and follow that which is good in a heart that is alone from ours, which is solved by straightening up so that you are not going to want anything that is wrong. Evil is something to be defeated. Every man is addicted to something in the world; left alone, they hunt for more. The greatest desires are fleshly. People are so desperate for approval, they lie. The selfish human nature is being exposed and brought out once for all. We must be shown the extent of our sexual desires. Fear God and give glory to him.

Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace to the earth, but a sword; after a man has demonstrated his faith, do I give him peace. A man must learn control of his body. Mankind's failure—sexual immorality. Neither do we in any way encourage violence. He doesn't want militia. Run from a partisan. Forgive the unjust offences of others. The just shall forgive. Forgiveness is everything. Forgive and forget. Follow peace with all men. Let everyone live their life. Treat others as you would have them treat you. Strive to live at peace with all men. You are to love all people; make no discrimination. Do good to all, not championing the cause of certain people. Be blind to the faults of others. Let no man criticize his brother. Before we correct, we must be corrected. He who points the finger had better make sure his finger is clean. Do not judge. When you judge others, you judge yourself. The Lord gives who has mercy a smooth way. Men who are not aware boast of their imperfections. Millions have received revelations over the centuries. Millions have confirmed the sweet, pure, holy water; and millions have confirmed the fruit. Millions are learning. You must learn to save your soul.

Learn from me. The Spirit teaches by grace.

There is a treasure trove of experiences behind a locked door; no one knows what is set before them. Dwell to be born. Be hearty, be confident, do no evil; be resolute and of good cheer. Awake branch, to life. The real test is giving from your excess. He who would know the will, shall know the will of God. The just shall walk with me. Being a Christian is not being alone. The whole world will see what it means for a man to sort himself. The whole world will see the works and words of God. The whole world will see what it means to be righteous. All men will understand; the whole world will understand. The end will be wonderful, until those who have the life of God will be seen. God will show his mercy. The hour comes, and now is, when you shall hear the Voice of the Son of God, and those who hear shall live to join in true love; you that are low in Spirit shall be raised. No longer will I remember your sins. I will gather my elect. The day is fast approaching when the day of reckoning occurs. He cannot teach us unless we are fully aware of the stings. Do not be misled; come, listen, hear. Let no one defraud you. Every man that comes, must come through the cross;—I say every man. You are the child of whom you obey. Remember, every person who sins denies Him as Lord and Master. Those who refuse to look at their slavery say, 'church me.' Narrow is the road that leads to life, and few will find it. He who walks by my Spirit shall inherit salvation.

All is on the inside. Serve the inner son. Serve Christ in the newness of life; to serve is to obey. Serve Christ; when disaster strikes, even more so. When disaster strikes, stay at home. My words are the same; they have not changed. I must teach every man in his own way the workings of grace. In every heart is heart-and-soul purifying grace. Continue to work out your salvation with fear and trembling. Do not be slack in performing your duties. Renew yourself in the pattern of the Lord; those who do so, their strength will not fail them. There is no life without the love of God. In the Lord alone is love, righteousness, peace, joy, and virtue. Forget all your worldly cares; put your trust in me. Blessed is he who follows in the footsteps of Christ. Put on the new life. The new life is as radically different as a man who has lived underground his whole life, suddenly coming above ground to see the sun, the sky, the plants, the animals, the wind, the stars. The world ends as you step into another dimension. Put on the new creature. If anyone is standing with a new heart, he is a new creature. Get a new heart, mind, and spirit. Behold, the substance of my inheritance is to turn the sword into ploughshares. Therefore let us arm ourselves with this good and precious knowledge. Obey my voice, and I will help you become holy like myself. The Lord is good to his servants. Man's eye has not seen nor has his ear heard the things God has prepared for those who love him. Follow me! Follow me as fast as you can; you start by sitting. Sit with me, and I will reveal all. Wait on God at every opportunity; make the most of every opportunity. For every generation of the earth, how one spends their time has now been defined. The narrow way has been established. Glad will be the hearts of those who persist until the end. How sweet the victory will be. All things said and done, you must hear; ears must hear! The Lord's will, will be done. He wins; He wins every time. Let us read with great joy and hope. Blessed be He that finds hope in these messages. He who is walking according to these facts, I admire in my pleasure; those who I admire, I protect. Treat with respect the lengths we have gone to warn you. This is the Word of the Lord to you all."
